

Serving the Needs of the Printing and Publishing Industry for Over 30 Years

Shares, Inc. is a reliable and affordable resource for Central Indiana's printing and publishing industry. Our flexible workforce of more than 300 dedicated people can perform your Hand Bindery, Packaging, Assembly, Rework, and other projects quickly and on short notice. Our own fleet of trucks can even pick up your materials and deliver the completed job back to your facility. Many printers consider us an extension of their business, because we are there as soon as they need us, we don't need to be trained, and they can rely on us for a high quality professional job. Join the many printers, publishers, and other Indiana companies that provide us with nearly 5,000 projects per year.

Shares, Inc. is proud to be a unique non-profit operation that employs people with disabilities from throughout East-Central Indiana. Qualified Supervisors oversee all our projects and we go to great lengths to maintain our excellent quality record. Our three plants provide supportive learning environments for our employees to grow and become valuable members of today's competitive workforce. Also, as a non-profit company, our customers can take pride in knowing that our revenues funnel right back into our Central Indiana community through the various services we offer.
